ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Organizing and Working with Parent Groups: A Manual for APEX Facilitators benefitted from the effort and insight of many people involved with group dynamics, leadership development and education. Some of the most important contributions were made by people who have given generously of their time and energy to ASPIRA over its 30 years of institutional history. Many of the ideas in this manual were adapted from a 1979 ASPIRA publication Organizing and Working With Clubs: A Workbook for ASPIRA's Club Leaders and portions of Tuning into the ASPIRANTES Counseling Needs published by ASPIRA of America in 1976. Although written for ASPIRA youth programs, these publications provided useful ideas in the development of this manual for parents and confirmed the relevance of the ASPIRA Process for working with groups.

In 1992, a grant from the DeWitt Wallace-Reader's Digest Fund allowed ASPIRA to seek further input from ASPIRA leadership, staff and professionals in the field of education who served on the APEX Advisory Committee to develop a training series for parents. We extend our gratitude to the staff and friends of ASPIRA who agreed to serve in an advisory capacity in developing and refining this manual. Our deepest appreciation to:

Janet Collazo, Project Director, ASPIRA of Florida ■ Hilda Crespo, Director of Education and Federal Affairs, ASPIRA National Office ■ Diane D'Angelo, Research Associate, RMC Corporation ■ Melvin Delgado, Professor, Boston University School of Social Work ■ William Gomez, Deputy Director of ASPIRA de Puerto Rico ■ Aquiles Iglesias, Associate Director, Center on Education in the Inner City Schools ■ Edward Keller, Deputy Executive Director, National Association of Elementary School Principals ■ Jose Morales, APEX Coordinator, ASPIRA of Pennsylvania ■ Magdalena Lewis, Program Director, Padres a Las Escuelas, National Committee for Citizens in Education ■ Emanuel Ortiz, Executive Director, ASPIRA of Pennsylvania ■ Glenda Partee, Assistant Director, Resource Center for Educational Equity, Council of Chief State School Officers ■ Pedro Perez-Maldonado, former Community Development Coordinator, ASPIRA of Pennsylvania ■ Janice Petrovich, Ed.D., former National Executive Director, ASPIRA National Office ■ Jose Rodriguez, Deputy Director, ASPIRA of Illinois ■ Hilda Rosario former Executive Director, ASPIRA of New Jersey ■ Patricia Ward, Director, EVENSTART, Migrant Programs

A special thanks to Deborah Santiago, former Program Assistant and to Christa Stephens, present Program Assistant at the ASPIRA National Office, for the many hours of creative effort in designing the layout and graphics for this manual.

Our sincere gratitude to Dr. Luis Martinez-Perez., member of the ASPIRA National Board of Directors, for the many hours contributed to the revision of this manual.
